To the Honorable the Legislature:

On behalf of the Council on Small, Veteran and Minority Business Opportunities, I submit the Council's 1992-93 Annual Report.

The Council continues to work to include Wisconsin's small, veteran and minority businesses in the State of Wisconsin's purchasing activities. Since they are a diverse group, the Council recognizes that special efforts are essential to establishing working relationships with them. No one solution is applicable.

During the last year, the Council continued the practice of critiquing State procurement policy drafts as well as reviewing and discussing standard purchasing reports at its meetings. The Council continues to make recommendations in an attempt to ensure that procurement processes are simplified and resources are available to potential bidders.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [August 25, 1993]

We commend the Division of State Agency Services for its responsiveness to Council recommendations on these issues.

Sincerely,
TERRY ATWATER
